train.py is the main file with the code. I have also included the venv with required data.
The /archive folder has the data upon which this was trained.
The matplotlib graphs are included in the graphs files.

The usage is simple:
python3 train.py

The models are trained, evaluated, then plotted one at a time.